Celebrate Clinical Trials Day

In appreciation of the fantastic clinical research work performed across the School of Medicine, we are hosting a dessert bar in honor of Stanford School of Medicine Clinical Research Professionals.

Please stop by on Wednesday, May 20th anytime between 11:30 and 1:30 to celebrate all the Research Nurses, Coordinators, Assistants, Managers, and professionals who make clinical research possible here at Stanford.

Location: FC180, the Richards Conference Room, Freidenrich Center for Translational Research - 800 Welch Road, Stanford University

About:

Clinical Trials Day is celebrated around the world on or near May 20 each year in order to celebrate the day that James Lind started what is often considered the first randomized clinical trial aboard a ship on May 20, 1747. More details can be found here: <http://www.clinicaltrialsday.org/about>
