

Lead Investigator for Clinical Research in Allergy/Immunology
Division of Pulmonary, Allergy and Critical Care Medicine
Department of Medicine

The Division of Pulmonary, Allergy, and Critical Care Medicine and the Sean N Parker Center for Allergy and Asthma Research at Stanford University in the Department of Medicine is recruiting two outstanding Allergy and Immunology, Gastroenterology, Hospital Medicine, Dermatology, Emergency Medicine or Pulmonary specialists to join our team in the Clinician Educator Line. This is an opportunity to join leading physician-researchers in an academic medical setting that focuses on excellence of care, research, and academic growth.

As a member of this growing team you will have the opportunity to combine skills in clinical research and patient-facing research. We expect the successful candidate to have comprehensive skills in clinical research studies, as well as an interest in taking an active role in leading research teams on the national and global level. The ideal candidate must either be Pediatric or Internal Medicine trained and be Board Eligible/Board Certified in Allergy and Immunology, Gastroenterology, Hospital Medicine, Dermatology, Emergency Medicine or Pulmonary and must possess a California medical license at the time of the appointment.

Our team of experienced clinical researchers in the Sean N Parker Center are located at Stanford Hospitals (Palo Alto, CA) and El Camino Hospital (Mountain View, CA). We are looking for candidates interested in any/all these sites. We also may consider the right candidate for a role as the lead principal investigator of multinational clinical trials.

Interested applicants should submit a CV, a brief letter outlining interest and the names of at least three references to:
